North Carolina's Education Policy Fellowship Program (NC EPFP) is one of 17 EPFP programs nationally administered through the Institute for Educational Leadership in Washington, D.C.

Fellows Benefit Through:

- A 9 month professional development program
- Building capacity from a foundation of equity and action-oriented projects
- Learning about processes and outcomes of policy making and implementation at local, national, and state levels
- Expanding the knowledge, skills, and practices of leaders able to effect positive change
- Developing relationships with diverse colleagues and ability to collaborate
- Interactive regional leadership forums and the national Washington Policy Seminar
- Joining a lifelong professional network of 9,500 alumni in all 50 states.

Employers Benefit Through:

- Access to a professional program endorsed by premier policy and leadership institutions
- Better informed, more skillful employees
- Employees who are prepared to assume greater leadership responsibilities and make contributions to equitable public policy and practice
- Expanded professional networks

"EPFP gave me the opportunity to meet amazing people, gain valuable experience, and empowered me to take steps to positively impact our students. This is a great program, and I highly recommend it to anyone in the field of education!"

- 2018-19 NC EPFP Fellow
